Dear AWHONN Members,

Globally, 2020 is designated as the International Year of the Nurse and Midwife. This celebration is to honor the 200th anniversary of Florence Nightingale and the vital role nurses have played in transforming health care around the world. Today, the world’s eyes are on our profession as we lead the way in shaping, improving, building, and developing systems that are essential for making a difference in the lives of women and newborns. Despite the unprecedented challenges of 2020, AWHONN continues to support our mission of empowering and supporting nurses. This year, we are pleased to bring you the Convention experience that you expect from AWHONN, except this year, we’ve gone to a virtual format.

This year’s theme is “Break Barriers, Think Differently, and Lead Boldly,” and we have genuinely embraced those ideals in organizing the AWHONN Convention. The virtual platform allows us to provide the content that you need, the networking you want, as well as the opportunity for members to connect and share experiences and best practices during these unconventional times.

This fantastic event is the culmination of the entire AWHONN programming committee’s outstanding contributions and our incredible staff. In the face of extraordinary challenges, we were able to shift gears and organize a virtual Convention that will give you everything you expect from our in-person Convention and more.

While this has not been the year any of us expected, I have never been prouder of our AWHONN colleagues for the courage each of you has shown in the face of unknown and unpredictable circumstances. When AWHONN members Break Barriers, Think Differently, and Lead Boldly, I know we will create a positive and healthier future for the women and newborns we care for every day! Thank you for being a part of AWHONN.

Enjoy the Convention!

Rebecca Cypher, MSN, PNP
2020 President, AWHONN Board of Directors

Black mothers continue to die in the first-year post-birth at 3-4 times the rate of all other mothers, leaving newborns without a mother and a family without their cornerstone, compass, and anchor. The significant disparities and inequities in the care that Black women experience across their reproductive lifespan and the outcomes are not only statistically significant but morally and fundamentally unjust. Data shows that these inequities are caused by social and structural determinants of health rooted in racism. During a global pandemic, the New England Journal of Medicine and maternal advocacy organizations have declared racism a “public health emergency.” The COVID-19 pandemic has made longstanding inequities in health and health care more visible.

The overarching goal of this Summit is to acknowledge the historical and current impact of racism as a factor in preventable Black maternal deaths and injury. Nursing leaders will be provided strategic tools such as allyship and quality improvement methodologies specifically aimed at creating an anti-racist nursing workforce. This is a call-to-action for nurse leaders to focus with intention on dismantling racism and eradicating racial disparities among Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC).

SUPPORT THE DIAPER BANK OF CENTRAL ARIZONA

Healthy Mom&Baby Diaper Drive is benefitting the Diaper Bank of Central Arizona

Even if we can’t be together in Phoenix this year, as nurses who care for women and their infants, we can still support the Diaper Bank of Central Arizona, and the moms, babies and families it serves with all kinds of diapers, wipes and infant care essentials. Your donations through this Amazon Wish List will go directly to the diaper bank.

This National Diaper Bank Network bank, in partnership with its founder Huggies™, gives hundreds of thousands of diapers per year to 28 Valley of the Sun non-profit groups to disburse to the community.

All donations will be matched by our partner Huggies™!

FREE Online CE Activity

As a nurse, you make a difference every day...

Some of your youngest patients—babies younger than 1 year of age—are at risk for Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) and other sleep-related causes of infant death. But you can help reduce that risk.

Take our free continuing education (CE) activity to learn how to teach parents and caregivers about keeping their babies safe and healthy so they can grow up to make a difference—just like you.

Learn more about the free online CE activity at: http://safetosleep.nichd.nih.gov/nursesce

The CE activity explains safe sleep recommendations from the American Academy of Pediatrics and is approved by the Maryland Nurses Association, an accredited approver of the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation.

Sex last night?

A negative fFN result is valid.

Even if a patient has had sex in the prior 24 hours:

- A negative result is valid
- A positive result may not be valid and should be confirmed > 24 hours

Interference from semen can sometimes cause a false positive due to fibronectin in semen, but a negative fFN result is a valid result.¹
