The women’s health nursing community faces challenges across the globe. Understanding how we fit into the global health care environment will allow us to adapt and adopt practices that can provide better care to our patients while making a difference in how we can provide consistent outcomes for patients of all backgrounds. Join us for the 2022 AWHONN Convention in Aurora, CO, June 25–29, where you will learn and understand concepts to help you:

- Construct methods of translating diversity, equity, and inclusion concepts into education, research, practice, and leadership globally
- Facilitate education that promotes choice within safe care parameters
- Develop empowerment approaches that contribute to the health of women and newborns worldwide

At this time, the maximum CNE that can be earned while participating in the 2022 Preconvention and Convention educational activities is 38.50 nursing contact hours attainable as follows:

- Preconvention Sessions (fee additional): 11.75
- Sunday: 1.5
- Monday: 5.5
- Tuesday: 6.0
- Wednesday: 4.5
- Posters: 9.25 hours that can be earned both at poster sessions and throughout the open hours of the poster room

The Association of Women’s Health, Obstetric and Neonatal Nurses is accredited with distinction as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation. Accredited status does not imply endorsement by AWHONN or ANCC of any commercial products discussed/displayed in conjunction with the educational activity. AWHONN is approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider #CEP580.
We’re ready for the 2022 AWHONN Convention and are excited to partner with you to experience a safe, valuable event. As we prepare for this live event experience, we are doing so with the consideration that all individuals onsite — attendees, speakers, staff, and venue personnel — remain safe and comfortable throughout our time together.

We are actively monitoring the pandemic, including the omicron and delta variants, and health protocols will be in place in accordance with expert guidance from the CDC. As such, we ask that you recognize the following and agree to AWHONN’s Be Well Policy.*

By participating in the Convention, all attendees agree to:
1. Provide proof of full COVID-19 vaccination and COVID-19 booster if appropriate based on vaccination booster timeline
2. Wear an approved mask (KN95, N95, or double mask) over the nose and mouth at all events
3. Wear a color-coded indicator (wristband and/or lanyard) indicating your comfort level of congregating within six feet of other attendees
4. *Reconsider participation in the event should you feel sick or are experiencing COVID-like symptoms prior to traveling to or while onsite in Aurora

We will continue to monitor the COVID-19 pandemic and will be in constant communication with our partners at the Gaylord Rockies Resort and Convention Center, national authorities, and the AWHONN Board of Directors.

For full details about how we are planning to keep you safe during your time with us, visit awhonnconvention.org/covid-19.
GENERAL SESSION SPEAKERS

SUNDAY, JUNE 26, 2022

4–5 pm
(1.0 contact hour)

Opening Keynote - Stepping Up and Saving Lives: Nurses as Leaders in Healthcare Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion
Presenter: Launette Woolforde, EdD, DNP, RN, NEA-BC, NPD-BC, FAAN

Inequity is real, and it brings with it a deep, far-reaching impact that shapes lives before they even enter this world. Providers of care are sculpted by their own experiences and journeys along the inclusion and equity continuum, and the same is true for those on the receiving end of care. This session will examine and validate diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) as key factors in health and compel nurses to action in leading progress and change in the health care arena and in society.

MONDAY, JUNE 27, 2022

8:45–9:45 am
(1.0 contact hour)

General Session 2 – The Great (Re)Engagement – Rediscovering Your Passion, Purpose, and Path Forward
Presenters: Lori Armstrong, DNP, RN, NEA-BC

New nurses often feel a sense of calling in serving patients and their families during life’s most vulnerable moments. Over time, and especially now, this emotionally demanding work can lead nurses to disengage with that calling. It is irrefutable that when nurses are (re)engaged and empowered, the patient, employee, and financial outcomes soar. No matter your role, your engagement matters, and it matters a lot. In this timely general session, Lori uses storytelling, best practices, proven strategies, and humor to help nurses (re)engage with their calling and rediscover their passion, purpose, and path forward.

2:30–3:30 pm
(1.0 contact hour)

Presenter: Rose L. Horton, MSM, RNC-OB, NEA-BC

Health care has faced, managed, and is surviving an unprecedented pandemic that has resulted in a significant disruption in our work and lives. Nurses and nurse leaders are experiencing burnout and resulting attrition. This session will confront these issues head-on while sharing some strategies to mitigate turnover and improve resilience. During a time when we’re all feeling pushed to the limit, learn how to reclaim your joy and lead with empathy.

TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 2022

8:45–9:45 am
(1.0 contact hour)

General Session 4 – Topic: Resiliency/Motivation
Presenters: To be announced

Description: To be announced

3:30–5 pm
(1.5 contact hours)

General Session 5 – Topic: Long-haul COVID
Presenters: To be announced

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 2022

8–9:30 am
(1.5 contact hours)

General Session 6 - Let’s Get It Right! Real Conversations with the Transgender Community – A Panel Discussion
Panelists: Kayden X. Coleman and additional panelists, to be announced.
Moderator: Rachelle Nurse, PhD, RN, WHNP-BC

This facilitated discussion will provide accurate information on transgender social issues, misconceptions, and health care needs to support gender inclusion and justice. Panelists will address complex issues in the transgender community to be considered for the development and promotion of coordinated, comprehensive, and inclusive health systems.

12:15–1:15 pm
(1.0 contact hour)

Closing Keynote: Topic to be announced
Presenter: To be announced

Description: To be announced
PRECONVENTION SCHEDULE

SATURDAY, JUNE 25, 2022

8 am–5 pm
(8.0 contact hours, registration is limited; additional fee required)

PC1 - Birth of a Lawsuit
Adam Snyder, JD
Stephen R. Brzezinski, JD

Labor, birth, and subsequent neonatal care are complex processes that require a collaborative team that is focused on evidence-based principles of care. Regrettably, not all outcomes are good, and litigation is likely whenever a mother or infant is injured. This all-day workshop is your opportunity to develop a better understanding of lessons learned by the trial attorneys who litigate these challenging cases. Discussions will include preventable maternal death, obstetrics in the emergency department, oxytocin liability and electronic fetal monitoring, informed consent, deposition strategy and psychology, charting issues, and common allegations.

PC2 - Advanced Life Support Obstetrics (ALS OB) – What’s New in 2022 & How to Maximize Your Educational Return on Investment (ROI)
Teresa Stanfill, DNP, RN, NEA-BC, RNC-OB
Robyn Beall, MSN, RN, NE-BC

The incidence of codes in the OB population is continuing to increase. OB patients are different, and modifications need to occur. The purpose of the full ALS OB* class is to teach how, when, and why to modify resuscitation algorithms when caring for a pregnant or newly delivered patient experiencing a cardiac arrest. Knowledge combined with regular practice will prepare OB nurses to provide the most appropriate care for these patients.

*Disclaimer: this Preconvention is NOT the full ALS OB class.

PC3 - Moving Our Mamas (MOMs) Hands-on Labor Support Training
Patricia Klassa, MSN, RN, CNS-C, IBCLC
Cheryl (Larry-Usman) Bellamy, DNP, MS, BS, RN, CNM, CNS-C

The purpose of this program is to provide hands-on education and practice about the different forms of support during labor and birth, including alternative therapies, coping strategies, and respectful and evidence-based maternity care.

PC4 - Neonatal Intensive Care Unit – Evidence-based Updates
Rebecca South, BSN, RNC-NIC
Jodi Herron Behr, PhD, RN, RNC-NIC, ACCNS-P
Kathleen K. Ellis, PhD, RN, CCRN-K
Nicole E. Nyberg, MSN, APRN, NNP-BC

This Preconvention session will provide an overview of care for the infant in the neonatal intensive care unit (NICU). Reaching beyond the basics, participants will explore evidence-based practices and updates to topics, including assessment, neuroprotection, and the infant microbiome.

SUNDAY, JUNE 26, 2022

8–10 am
(2.0 contact hours, registration is limited; additional fee required)

PC5 - From Pen and Paper to Gaming and Simulation: Applying Innovative Learning Strategies to Educational Programs
Susan Hale, DNP, RNC-OB, C-EFM, EBP (CH)
Jean Salera-Vieira, DNP, APRN-CNS, RNC

This workshop-style session will introduce participants to a variety of strategies to fill their education toolkit that can be used to enhance traditional learning approaches. Participants will have the opportunity to network and compile resources to use in their own settings.
Contemporary guidelines support, or even mandate, universal maternal risk assessment corresponding systems to ensure equitable access to risk-appropriate care but offer little insight into its implementation. This four-hour interactive session will touch on key concepts in the ongoing struggle to address maternal morbidity and mortality designed to be adapted to the local practice environment. Available literature and guidelines supporting varying approaches to risk-appropriate multidisciplinary care will be reviewed in a case-based flipped classroom format. This interactive approach will rely on the expertise of participants to identify barriers, propose solutions, and enrich the theoretical underpinnings of risk-appropriate maternal care with real-world experience.

PC7 – Topic: Long-Acting Reversible Contraception (LARC)
Presenters: To be announced

10 am–12 pm
(2.0 contact hours, registration is limited; additional fee required)

PC8 - What’s Cool About Cooling: Understanding Hypoxic Ischemic Encephalopathy (HIE) and Its Treatment
Eduardo M. Perez, MD

Dr. Perez will describe the multiple causes and pathogenesis of neonatal encephalopathy, emphasizing hypoxic-ischemic injury. Later, he will approach the clinical features of this syndrome, how the diagnosis is made, and finally, will go over current and potential future treatments.
MONDAY, JUNE 27, 2022

10–11 am
(1.0 contact hours)
